

Nearby Parks

If you're having a great time here, don't forget to visit one of the other four nearby state parks!

River Island State Park (14 miles) This park is ideal for tent campers and provides a scenic respite, a desert escape, or a fun-filled water adventure. It offers campsites, ramadas, a sandy beach, cove, and boat launch area. The park has a trail for hiking and access to off-highway vehicle back-country roads. (928) 667-3386

Havasu Riviera State Park (14 miles) OPENING IN 2019 With high-end amenities including a marina, restaurant, camping cabins, and new RV sites, our newest state park is sure to be a lakeside destination.

Buckskin Mountain State Park (15 miles) Mountains line the river on both the Arizona and California sides, and the wildlife is as varied as the recreational opportunities along the river. This picturesque park provides a scenic respite and a fun-filled escape from the desert heat. (928) 667-3231

Lake Havasu State Park (17 miles) The scenic shoreline is an ideal place to enjoy beautiful beaches, nature trails, boat ramps, cabins, and convenient campsites. This spot is truly a watersport haven located near the famous London Bridge of Lake Havasu City. (928) 855-2784

CATTAIL COVE

STATE PARK

Enjoy the beach, boat ramp, and campsites at Cattail Cove State Park. Whether you're interested in swimming, fishing, lounging, or relaxing, you can get away and enjoy tranquility on the Colorado River.

Lake Havasu was formed when the Colorado River was dammed near Parker. The 45-mile long lake creates a haven for all kinds of water sports. Fish, boat, sail into quiet coves, or water or jet ski out on the open lake.

If you have your own boat, you can motor out to one of the 32 campsites along the water's edge.

Thank you for visiting!

Hiking Trails

Whytes Retreat Trail: This is a 1.5-mile hiking trail with an easy rating. The trail begins at the park and follows the shoreline, providing an excellent view of the lower portion of the Colorado River, the Whitsett Pumping Station, and Parker Dam. The shoreline portion of the trail ends at Whytes Retreat. The McKinney Loop portion of the trail returns to Cattail Cove through low desert hills and a shallow gorge with bluffs on both sides. To reach the trail, follow the entrance road to the boat launch ramp where the trail begins on the south side.

Ted's Trail: A 0.5-mile moderately difficult hiking trail.

Wayne's Way Trail: A looping trail with two loops, either 0.2 or 0.9 miles, rated moderate to difficult.

Ripley's Run Trail: A 1.6-mile trail that runs through State Trust Land and property managed by the Bureau of Land Management.

Fishing

Catch the limit of bass, catfish, and crappie. A valid Arizona fishing license is required for anglers 10 years and older. We also offer a fish cleaning station at the park.

Boat-In Camping Sites

There are boat-in camping sites with picnic tables and access to pit toilets. All boat-in camping sites are first-come, first-served. You can also use boat camping sites for day use!

Wildlife Viewing

Birds include loons, ducks, Gambel's quail, hummingbirds, and vultures. You may also see rabbits, coyotes, bighorn sheep, raccoons, bobcats, and snakes.
