

Nearby Parks

If you're having a great time here, don't forget to visit one of the two nearby state parks!

Lyman Lake State Park (60 miles) There's no shortage of activities at this secluded getaway: hiking, fishing, swimming, boating, archaeology, and petroglyph trails are all available! And with no size restrictions on watercrafts, boaters can enjoy waterskiing and speedboating. (928) 337-4441

Homolovi State Park (85 miles) An archaeological treasure, this sprawling park also has campsites and picnic tables for the everyday traveler. The park museum includes a collection of Hopi artifacts as well as records the contributions Hopi people have made to the country and their people. (928) 289-4106

Hiking Trail

The park has a 1.5-mile walking trail that runs along the south and west sides of the lake.

White Mountain Trail System: More than 103 miles of hiking divided into 11 loop trails. Access points are located within 15 miles of the park in the adjacent Apache-Sitgreaves National Forest. For more information call (928) 333-4301.

Amphitheater

The amphitheater and interpretive area is located between the no-hookup camping loops and the RV loops. Interpretive programs are held in the amphitheater, weather permitting. Ask at the ranger station about current programs; topics include wildlife, wildfire, geology, or special programs.

FOOL HOLLOW LAKE

RECREATION AREA

Year-round camping, fishing, picnicking, boating, and wildlife viewing make Fool Hollow Lake Recreation Area a popular place. This cool country recreation area has a 150-acre lake surrounded by towering pine trees and offers 92 hookup sites and 31 non-hookup sites.

The park was named when Thomas Jefferson Adair moved into the area in 1885 to start a farm. The locals joked that only a fool would try to farm the land, and the name stuck!

Arizona State Parks & Trails would like to thank its partners who worked to develop this recreation area – the US Forest Service, Arizona Game & Fish, the City of Show Low, and corporate sponsors Arizona Public Service and McCarty Construction Company.

Thank you for visiting!
