Hiking Trails

The family-oriented trail system is well marked for your safety and pleasure. The 5-mile network consists of interconnecting loops, which lead you to vistas of red rock or along the lush greenery of Oak Creek.

Stop by the Visitor Center desk for detailed information before starting out on the trails. Bikes and horses are allowed only on designated routes.

The Eagle's Nest Loop & the Apache Fire Loop are joined together by the Coyote Ridge Trail. Eagle's Nest is the highest point in the park with an elevation gain of 300'. These three major loops are connected along the riparian corridor by the Kisva Trail, which also leads up to the short loop of the Yavapai Ridge Trail. The Javelina Trail takes you into the pinyon/juniper woodlands and back to the other loops.

Wildlife Viewing

Wildlife is abundant within the park with sightings occurring regularly. Mule deer, javelina, coyotes, and bobcats are all commonly seen by visitors through the year, as well as a wide variety of birds. Blacktail Rattlesnakes are seen on occasion during the warmer months as well as tarantulas and lizards. Download our Bird List at: azstateparks.com/red-rock/things-to-do/wildlife-viewing

Red Rock State Park

Center for Environmental Education

Red Rock State Park is a 286 acre nature preserve and environmental education center with stunning scenery. Trails throughout the park wind through manzanita and juniper to reach the rich banks of Oak Creek. Green meadows are framed by native vegetation and hills of red rock. The creek meanders through the park, creating a diverse riparian habitat abounding with plants and wildlife. This riparian habitat provides the setting and the opportunity for the park to offer a focus on environmental education.

The park offers a variety of special programs for school groups and private groups. Check with the Visitor Center for daily and weekly park events, including hikes & programs.

Park facilities include a Visitor Center, classroom, theater, regional displays, gift shop, picnic tables, 10 developed trails, restrooms, and group area with Ramada and facilities. Restrooms facilities are ADA Accessible. Camping facilities are not available at this day use park.

The property was acquired by the Arizona State Parks Board in 1986 and the park was opened to the public in 1991.
